

BBC RADIO 4 NEWS
Thursday, 29th November 2012
10.00am

ELEMENTARY: QUESTIONS

1. When are David Cameron and Nick Clegg going to meet?
2. What is the report into? _____-hacking and _____ regulation
3. Which party leader is believed to be in favour of statutory regulation?
4. What have there been claims of? a _____ in the Coalition
5. Who should a strong, independent press hold to account, according to Mr Clegg?
People in positions of _____.
6. Who should be protected? _____ people - the vulnerable and innocent
7. What do the press do sometimes? They '_____ - _____ the mark'.

8. What has there been a significant fall in? _____ migration _____
9. What was the difference between the number of people entering Britain and leaving in the 12 months to March?
10. How does this compare with the 2011 figure? It's _____ lower.

11. Who is Ed Davey?
12. What will he set out this morning? the Government's plans for _____ _____ energy
13. What will consumers have to pay more to fund in future? _____ energy

14. Who was jailed for helping the CIA find Osama Bin Laden?
15. What has the man done? He's _____ on _____ strike.
16. How long was the man jailed for?
17. What is his long prison sentence widely seen as? a punishment _____

18. Where have there been three bomb explosions?
19. How many people have been killed in majority Shi'ite areas?
20. Where is Hilla?

21. What has New York experienced for the first time in living memory? A _____ _____ reports of violent crime
22. What did the police say about Monday? That there was not a single stabbing, murder or _____.

BBC RADIO 4 NEWS
Thursday, 29th November 2012
10.00am

ELEMENTARY: ANSWERS

1. When are David Cameron and Nick Clegg going to meet? this morning
2. What is the report into? phone-hacking and press regulation
3. Which party leader is believed to be in favour of statutory regulation? Nick Clegg
4. What have there been claims of? a split in the Coalition
5. Who should a strong, independent press hold to account, according to Mr Clegg?
People in positions of power.
6. Who should be protected? ordinary people - the vulnerable and innocent
7. What do the press do sometimes? They 'over-step the mark'.

8. What has there been a significant fall in? net migration to the UK
9. What was the difference between the number of people entering Britain and leaving in the 12 months to March? 183,000
10. How does this compare with the 2011 figure? It's 59,000 lower.

11. Who is Ed Davey? He's the energy minister.
12. What will he set out this morning? the Government's plans for low carbon energy
13. What will consumers have to pay more to fund in future? renewable energy

14. Who was jailed for helping the CIA find Osama Bin Laden? a Pakistani doctor
15. What has the man done? He's gone on hunger strike.
16. How long was the man jailed for? 33 years
17. What is his long prison sentence widely seen as? a punishment for helping the Americans

18. Where have there been three bomb explosions? in Iraq
19. How many people have been killed in majority Shi'ite areas? at least 21
20. Where is Hilla? It's in southern Iraq. ('in the southern city of Hilla')

21. What has New York experienced for the first time in living memory? a whole day without reports of violent crime
22. What did the police say about Monday? That there was not a single stabbing, murder or mugging.

BBC RADIO 4 NEWS
Thursday, 29th November 2012
10.00am

INTERMEDIATE: GAP-FILL

1. David Cameron is going to _____ Nick Clegg this morning.
2. The two men will _____ the Government's response to the _____-awaited report on phone-hacking and _____ regulation.
3. The two men have _____ advanced _____ of Lord Justice Leveson's recommendations.
4. These are thought to include _____ to the way _____ are held to account.
5. Mr Clegg is reported to favour _____ statutory regulation.
6. However, he _____ down claims of a _____ in the Coalition.
7. Mr Clegg says 'Everybody _____ two _____. Firstly a _____, independent, raucous press _____ can hold people in positions of power to account er... And secondly to protect _____ people - the vulnerable, the innocent - when the press _____ the mark.'
8. Mr Clegg went on '_____ the balance we're trying to strike and I'm _____ we _____.'

9. There's been a significant _____ in _____ migration to the _____.
10. In the 12 _____ to the end of _____, the difference between the number of people entering Britain and _____ was _____.
11. That's _____ lower than last year's figure.

12. The _____ secretary is Ed Davey.
13. He's going to set out the Government's _____ for _____ carbon energy this morning.
14. He's already made it _____ that consumers will be asked to _____ to fund renewable energy.

15. A Pakistani _____ jailed for helping the _____ find Osama Bin Laden has gone on _____ strike.
16. _____ say Dr Shakil Afridi is protesting about conditions in the _____ in the _____ of Peshawar.
17. He was jailed for _____ for having links to a banned militant group.
18. The sentence was _____ seen as a punishment for _____ the Americans.

19. Three explosions in Iraq have killed at _____ people in majority Shi'ite areas.
20. _____ people died when two bombs went off in the _____ of Hilla.
21. A _____ bomb exploded in the _____ of Karbala.

22. New York's _____ chief has announced that for the _____ time in living memory, the city has experienced a _____ day _____ any reports of violent crime.
23. On _____ there was not a single _____, murder or _____.

BBC RADIO 4 NEWS
Thursday, 29th November 2012
10.00am

INTERMEDIATE: ANSWERS

1. David Cameron is going to meet Nick Clegg this morning.
2. The two men will discuss the Government's response to the long-awaited report on phone-hacking and press regulation.
3. The two men have seen advanced copies of Lord Justice Leveson's recommendations.
4. These are thought to include changes to the way newspapers are held to account.
5. Mr Clegg is reported to favour some form of statutory regulation.
6. However, he played down claims of a split in the Coalition.
7. Mr Clegg says 'Everybody wants two things. Firstly a strong, independent, raucous press who can hold people in positions of power to account er... And secondly to protect ordinary people - the vulnerable, the innocent - when the press overstep the mark.'
8. Mr Clegg went on 'That's the balance we're trying to strike and I'm sure we will.'

9. There's been a significant fall in net migration to the UK.
10. In the 12 months to the end of March, the difference between the number of people entering Britain and leaving was 183,000.
11. That's 59,000 lower than last year's figure.

12. The energy secretary is Ed Davey.
13. He's going to set out the Government's plans for low carbon energy this morning.
14. He's already made it clear that consumers will be asked to pay more to fund renewable energy.

15. A Pakistani doctor jailed for helping the CIA find Osama Bin Laden has gone on hunger strike.
16. Relatives say Dr Shakil Afridi is protesting about conditions in the prison in the city of Peshawar.
17. He was jailed for 33 years for having links to a banned militant group.
18. The sentence was widely seen as a punishment for helping the Americans.

19. Three explosions in Iraq have killed at least 21 people in majority Shi'ite areas.
20. Sixteen people died when two bombs went off in the southern city of Hilla.
21. A third bomb exploded in the city of Karbala.

22. New York's police chief has announced that for the first time in living memory, the city has experienced a whole day without any reports of violent crime.
23. On Monday there was not a single stabbing, murder or mugging.

BBC RADIO 4 NEWS
Thursday, 29th November 2012
10.00am

ADVANCED: TRUE/FALSE

1. David Cameron and Nick Clegg are meeting this morning to discuss the Government's reaction to a long-awaited report.
2. The report is into phone-hacking and television regulation.
3. Both men have seen a France copy of Justice Leveson's recommendations.
4. Mr Clegg is reported to want some kind of statutory regulation.
5. However, he played down claims of a split in the Coalition.
6. Mr Clegg says everyone wants a strong, independent, raucous press that can hold people in positions of power to account.
7. He says we also need to protect ordinary, vulnerable and innocent people when the press 'cross the mark'.
8. Mr Clegg said it was impossible to strike a balance.

9. There's been a significant fall in net immigration to the UK.
10. In the 12 months to the end of March, the difference between the number of people entering and leaving Britain was 183,000 - 59,000 lower than the 2011 figure.

11. The energy secretary Ed Davey is going to set out the Government's plans for no carbon energy this morning.
12. He's already made it clear that consumers will have to pay more to fund renewable energy.

13. A Pakistani doctor who was jailed for helping the FBI find Osama Bin Laden has gone on hunger strike.
14. Family members say Dr Shakil Afridi is protesting about conditions in the prison in the city of Peshawar.
15. Dr Afridi was jailed for 33 years for having links to a militant musical band.
16. A lot of people thought the sentence was a punishment for helping the Americans.

17. Three explosions in Iraq have killed at least 21 people in minority Shi'ite areas.
18. Sixty people died when two bombs went off in the southern city of Hilla.
19. A third bomb exploded in the city of Karbala.

20. New York's police chief says that for the first time since 1869 the city has experienced a whole day without any reports of violent crime.
21. On Monday there was not a single stabbing, murder or mugging.

BBC RADIO 4 NEWS
Thursday, 29th November 2012
10.00am

ADVANCED: ANSWERS

1. David Cameron and Nick Clegg are meeting this morning to discuss the Government's reaction to a long-awaited report. (T)
2. The report is into phone-hacking and television regulation. (F 'phone-hacking and press regulation')
3. Both men have seen a France copy of Justice Leveson's recommendations. (F 'They've seen advanced copies...')
4. Mr Clegg is reported to want some kind of statutory regulation. (T)
5. However, he played down claims of a split in the Coalition. (F 'a split', not a snit)
6. Mr Clegg says everyone wants a strong, independent, raucous press that can hold people in positions of power to account. (T)
7. He says we also need to protect ordinary, vulnerable and innocent people when the press 'cross the mark'. (F 'overstep the mark')
8. Mr Clegg said it was impossible to strike a balance. (F 'That's the balance we're trying to strike and I'm sure we will.')

9. There's been a significant fall in net immigration to the UK. (F 'in net migration')
10. In the 12 months to the end of March, the difference between the number of people entering and leaving Britain was 183,000 - 59,000 lower than the 2011 figure. (T)

11. The energy secretary Ed Davey is going to set out the Government's plans for no carbon energy this morning. (F 'for low carbon energy')
12. He's already made it clear that consumers will have to pay more to fund renewable energy. (T)

13. A Pakistani doctor who was jailed for helping the FBI find Osama Bin Laden has gone on hunger strike. (F 'the CIA', not the FBI)
14. Family members say Dr Shakil Afridi is protesting about conditions in the prison in the city of Peshawar. (T)
15. Dr Afridi was jailed for 33 years for having links to a militant musical band. (F 'links to a banned militant group')
16. A lot of people thought the sentence was a punishment for helping the Americans. (T)

17. Three explosions in Iraq have killed at least 21 people in minority Shi'ite areas. (F 'in majority Shi'ite areas')
18. Sixty people died when two bombs went off in the southern city of Hilla. (F 'Sixteen')
19. A third bomb exploded in the city of Karbala. (T)

20. New York's police chief says that for the first time since 1869 the city has experienced a whole day without any reports of violent crime. (F 'for the first time in living memory')
21. On Monday there was not a single stapling, murder or mugging. (F 'stabbing', not stapling)